Assisted surveys.

Where we are asked to attend site to assist with a survey or measure, we will only do so where the purchasing party takes all responsibility for sizes & styles.

We only offer assistance with surveys & strongly suggest that the purchasing party attends site to ensure measurements & styles are accurate.

The purchasing party will at all times be required to sign the order as correct indicating that they accept all responsibility.

No responsibility will be born by this company for transposition errors, measuring errors, wrong style frames or handing errors.

Once the order is signed all responsibility is the purchasers.

No order will be processed for production until it is signed.
